We do not inherit the earth from our ancestors;
we borrow it from our children

Water is sacred
because it gives life
to everything, and
without water, there
is no life.

“ Water isn't just for
drinking or washing.
Water has its
own spirit.

WATER IS ALIVE.

Water has memory.
Water knows how
you treat it, water
knows you.

You should get to KNOW WATER TOO. ”
